Welcome Merry Christmas! We gather to worship the Word made flesh, dwelling among us. Welcome!

Visitors Please sign our guest book found in the narthex (entrance). Our church has a few nooks and crannies, so don't be afraid to ask an usher where things are. Our pastors and any member here today would also be glad to meet and assist you. A guest information packet is available near the guest register.

COMMUNION

As you prepare to receive the Lord's Supper, we invite you to turn to pages 329-330 in the front of the hymnal and review section 4: "Christian Questions and their Answers." and to page 308 as well as the inside front cover of the hymnal and use the appropriate prayers before and after communion.

As we celebrate the LORD'S SUPPER today, we confess the REAL PRESENCE

We come to the Lord's Table because we have sinned and want the Lord's assurance of His forgiveness of our sins as well as His strength for living the new life of His Resurrection. As we eat the bread and drink the wine, because Jesus says so, we also receive His very Body and Blood. Doing this in repentant faith, we receive His forgiveness. With forgiveness also must come the repentant new life, seeking and using His power to overcome and forsake sinful ways. This includes any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, and unfaithfulness in regular worship and attendance at the Lord's Table. Only in such faith do we properly and profitably receive the Sacrament and not misuse it to our judgment.

As we celebrate the Sacrament, we also give public confession to our unity in the Christian Faith. We invite communicant members of this congregation, or another congregation of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, to commune. Prompted by love and caring, we ask that guests who wish to receive the sacrament please speak with the pastors or lay minister before the service.

Directional Notes:

- Please follow the indications of the ushers as they direct you to the communion rail.
- The wine is offered by the common cup and individual cup. If you prefer the common cup, please let the individual cup pass and reach out for the common cup as it comes to you.
- Individual cups should be placed in the plastic lined baskets at the end of the communion rail.
- If you are allergic or cannot drink full strength wine, the two (2) cups in the center of each tray have water with a drop or two of wine.

Christmas Day Worship

“Changing Lives through Worship, Compassion, and Christian Education.”

AS WE GATHER... Merry Christmas! The prophet Isaiah said, “Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel” (Isaiah 7:14). Welcome to this Christmas Day service as we celebrate that our Immanuel has come, God with us, in swaddling clothes. Let the carols, Scripture, sermon and prayers reveal to you anew the Good News that the sign long promised has arrived in the flesh: Our Savior is born!

Ringing of the Bells, Welcome, Announcements, Greeting

Before worship prayer

Heavenly Father, with joy we enter into the contemplation of the holy mystery of your Son’s incarnation for us and our salvation. Open our minds to understand, our hearts to believe, and our mouths to proclaim the glory of Him who took our human flesh and blood through the blessed virgin in order to suffer and die in our place. Prepare our hearts to be fitting mangers to cradle Your Son that He may dwell in us and we in Him today and throughout all eternity. AMEN.

We’re So Glad God Brought You Here This Christmas Day!

A CHRISTMAS BEGINNING

Entrance Hymn: “Joy to the World” LSB, hymn #387
(Please face the Processional Cross as it leads the procession.)

Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her King;
Let ev’ry heart prepare Him room And heav’n and nature sing,
And heav’n and nature sing, And heav’n, and heav’n and nature sing.

Joy to the earth, the Savior reigns! Let men their songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy, Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sins and sorrows grow Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make His blessings flow Far as the curse is found,
Far as the curse is found, Far as, far as the curse is found.

He rules the world with truth and grace And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness And wonders of His love,
And wonders of His love, And wonders, wonders of His love.

INVOCATION AND CALL TO WORSHIP

P: In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: In the beginning was the Word,

C: and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

P: In Him was life,

C: and the life was the light of men.

P: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

C: The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

P: To us a child is born, to us a Son is given;

C: and the government shall be upon His shoulder,

P: and His name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,

C: Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

P: And so this is the message we have heard from Him and proclaim to you, that God is light,

C: and in Him is no darkness at all.

P: If we say we have fellowship with Him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

C: But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

CONFESSION AND GOD’S WORD OF FORGIVENESS

P: Dear Friends in Christ, today we celebrate Christmas, the incarnation of Jesus, the Word of God becoming flesh. Jesus came to bring peace and joy through all the earth, yet centuries later, our world is still filled with war and violence, hopelessness and despair. Too often, we have spread the evils of the world, rather than the joy and peace of Jesus. But our heavenly Father invites us to come before Him to ask for His forgiveness.

(Silence for reflection)

P: Heavenly Father,

C: We rejoice in the gift of Your Son, Jesus, our Emmanuel, God with us. Yet, even on this day of joy, we cannot escape the truth that it was because of our sin that You had to send Your Son to our broken and sinful world to suffer and die in our place on the cross.

P: Without Your faithful love we would be lost forever because we have failed to do the things we should have done and for doing the things we should not have done.

C: Forgive us not because we deserve this, but because Jesus was born for our salvation and took our place on the cross. Make us into your joy-filled Christmas messengers, sharing Your powerful message of salvation for all. Amen.

P: Dear friends in Christ, Rejoice in His Good News! Jesus is Immanuel, which means "God with us." Look, your Savior has come! You are not deserted nor are you forsaken. Your God has sought you out. He has found you and redeemed you. With His blood He has bought you back from darkness and has made you His own. Therefore, as a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen!

CHRISTMAS PRAYER

P: Let us pray, . . . Almighty God, You make this day to shine with the brightness of the true light.

C: Grant that as we know the mysteries of that light on earth wrapped in infinite love, we may also come to the fullness of His joys in heaven;

P: Prepare our hearts to receive the message of His incarnation with renewed joy. Receive our praises, Jesus, for You are our joy and salvation..

C: You are our Emmanuel God, be with us now in this place. Amen.

(Please be seated)

Christmas Hymn: " Let Us All with Gladsome Voice" LSB, hymn #390

Let us all with gladsome voice Praise the God of heaven,
Who, to bid our hearts rejoice, His own Son hath given.

To this vale of tears He comes, Here to serve in sadness,
That with Him in heav'n's fair homes We may reign in gladness.

We are rich, for He was poor; Is not this a wonder?
Therefore praise God evermore Here on earth and yonder.

Christ, our Lord and Savior dear, Be Thou ever near us.
Grant us now a glad new year. Amen, Jesus, hear us.

+ WORD +

Old Testament Lesson: Isaiah 52:7-10

(Your God Reigns!)

How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, "Your God reigns!" Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they shout for joy. When the LORD returns to Zion, they will see it with their own eyes. Burst into songs of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD will lay bare his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

Epistle Lesson: Hebrews 1:1-6

(God Has Spoken To Us By His Son)

In the past God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe. The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say, "You are my Son; today I have become your Father " ? Or again,

"I will be his Father, and he will be my Son"? And again, when God brings his firstborn into the world, he says, "Let all God's angels worship him."

Christmas Gospel: John 1:1-18

(The Word)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it. There came a man who was sent from God; his name was John. He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all men might believe. He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light. The true light that gives light to every man was coming into the world. He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God-- children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God. The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth. John testifies concerning him. He cries out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.'" From the fullness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only, who is at the Father's side, has made him known.

P: This is the Christmas Gospel of the Lord.

C: (Sung) Praise to You, O Christ.

Gospel Response: . tune: LSB, hymn #367- "Angels from the Realms of Glory"

Unto God on high be glory; Peace on earth and mercy mild.
Now fulfilled the ancient story: God and sinners reconciled.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Unto us is born a Child!

Christmas Hymn: "Savior of the Nations, Come" LSB, hymn #332

Savior of the nations, come, Virgin's Son, make here Your home!
Marvel now, O heav'n and earth, That the Lord chose such a birth.

Not by human flesh and blood, By the Spirit of our God,
Was the Word of God made flesh— Woman's offspring, pure and fresh.

Here a maid was found with child, Yet remained a virgin mild.
In her womb this truth was shown: God was there upon His throne.

Then stepped forth the Lord of all From His pure and kingly hall;
God of God, yet fully man, His heroic course began.

God the Father was His source, Back to God He ran His course.
Into hell His road went down, Back then to His throne and crown.

For You are the Father's Son Who in flesh the vict'ry won.
By Your mighty pow'r make whole All our ills of flesh and soul.

From the manger newborn light Shines in glory through the night.
Darkness there no more resides; In this light faith now abides.

Glory to the Father sing, Glory to the Son, our king,
Glory to the Spirit be Now and through eternity.

Creedal Hymn: "In God We Believe" . . . tune: LSB, hymn #364 - "Away in a Manger"

In God we believe: the Creator whose pow'r
In mercy has brought us for worship this hour.
He graciously grants us our years and our days
And blesses with kindness our work and our ways.

In Jesus, the Savior, our hope is secured.
True God and true man once the cross He endured
To grant our lives wholeness, forgiveness of sin.
With hearts freed from guilt, we know true peace within.

God's Spirit at work in our lives we confess
With power and truth the Church now He does bless.
As saints, God's forgiven, one day we shall then
Be living in glory forever. Amen.

CHRISTMAS PRAYERS

- P: Let us pray, . . . Father in heaven, on this Christmas Day, as Your sons and daughters we praise You for all Your goodness. We thank You for the word of the prophets spoken through people like Isaiah, who told us about how Your Son would be given to us.
- C: The Wonderful Counselor, the Mighty God, the Prince of Peace.
- P: Mighty God, we adore You for the awesome power You displayed when the Holy Spirit conceived in Mary, Your own child and offspring.
- C: By Your Spirit bring new life to all who hear the message. Seek out those who are lost with Your love that they would never be forsaken.
- P: Gracious God, as You honored young Mary, calling her to be Your servant, make us Your servants, that Christ may be proclaimed to many hearts.

- C: On this Christmas Day, we present ourselves to You as living sacrifices.
- P: Dear Father, we stand amazed at the man, Joseph, who treasured and guarded Your Son and His mother.
- C: As He willingly accepted a difficult task, give us the wisdom and strength to handle complex challenges in our lives.
- P: Almighty God, Your angels sang Your praises for fulfilling Your plans and promises.
- C: Receive our praises, for You truly are God most high.
- P: Good Lord, that You would choose shepherds to be the first visitors to see Your infant Son is an overwhelming truth to us. It proves that You seek out even those who others consider to be unclean and unimportant.
- C: With them, we worship You for always having arms that are open to those who struggle with uncleanness of any kind.
- P: Wise and all-knowing King, You reign over all the earth.
- C: As You guided the Wise Men from a distant place to the Savior's side, guide us by Your Word and Spirit that we would always adore and never leave Him.
- P: Father, as You sought us, continue to send out the Good News of great joy to all people throughout the world that the lost would be found and sinners would be saved.
- C: These things we pray in the name of our Infant Redeemer, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

SACRAMENT

(In preparation to receive the Sacrament, please read the Communion notes on page 2)

- P: May Jesus, the Babe of Bethlehem, be with you always.
- C: And also with you.
- P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. Psalm 136
- C: It is right and proper for us to do so.
- P: It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, for in the mystery of the Word made flesh You have given us a new revelation of Your glory that, seeing You in the person of Your Son, we may be drawn to the love of those things which are not seen. Therefore it is our duty and delight to join our voices with the saints and angels to praise You as we sing:

Sanctus: tune: LSB, hymn #367 - "Angels from the Realms of Glory"

Lo, the heav'nly host rejoices: "Holy, holy, holy Lord!"
Lo, God's people join their voices: "God of hosts, by all adored,
Heav'n and earth proclaim Your glory, Sing Your praise with one accord!"

Blest is he who now draws near us In the name of God the King!
Blest is He who comes to cheer us Let our welcome joyful ring:
"Hail! Hosanna! Hallelujah!" Highest praises echoing.

P: Let us pray. . . Blessed are You, gracious Lord, for entering human history as one of us, revealing to the world Your mercy and love. Jesus is our Savior and our Redeemer, the Word, inseparable from You, our heavenly Father, who made all things. Blessed are You, Father, for sending Jesus from heaven to be born of the virgin by the Holy Spirit; we celebrate His birth. As You have drawn us together by Your Word of truth, so strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit, that our faith will remain firm to the end. Bless us as we gather at Your table and receive our Lord's body and blood in and with the bread and wine. O Lord, remember us in Your Kingdom and teach us to pray:

C: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: Take, eat; this is my + body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of me. In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: Drink of it, all of you; this is my + blood of the new testament, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: And also with you.

Agnus Dei: tune: LSB, hymn #364 - "Away in a Manger"

O Jesus, Messiah, the True Lamb of God,
The sin of the whole world You take away.
O Jesus, Messiah, the true Lamb of God,
Grant mercy and peace to Your people, we pray.

DISTRIBUTION HYMNS

LSB621 - Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

Let all mortal flesh keep silence And with fear and trembling stand;
Ponder nothing earthly-minded, For with blessing in His hand
Christ our God to earth descending Comes our homage to demand.

King of kings yet born of Mary, As of old on earth He stood,
Lord of lords in human vesture, In the body and the blood,
He will give to all the faithful His own self for heav'nly food.

Rank on rank the host of heaven Spreads its vanguard on the way
As the Light of Light, descending From the realms of endless day,
Comes the pow'rs of hell to vanquish As the darkness clears away.

At His feet the six-winged seraph, Cherubim with sleepless eye,
Veil their faces to the presence As with ceaseless voice they cry:
"Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, Lord Most High!"

LSB388 - Go Tell It on the Mountain

Refrain

*Go tell it on the mountain, Over the hills and ev'rywhere;
Go tell it on the mountain That Jesus Christ is born!*

While shepherds kept their watching O'er silent flocks by night,
Behold, throughout the heavens There shone a holy light. Refrain.

The shepherds feared and trembled When lo, above the earth
Rang out the angel chorus That hailed our Savior's birth. Refrain.

Down in a lonely manger The humble Christ was born;
And God sent us salvation That blessed Christmas morn. Refrain.

LSB384 - Of the Father's Love Begotten

Of the Father's love begotten Ere the worlds began to be,
He is Alpha and Omega, He the source, the ending He,
Of the things that are, that have been,
And that future years shall see Evermore and evermore.

Oh, that birth forever blessed, When the virgin, full of grace,
By the Holy Ghost conceiving, Bore the Savior of our race,
And the babe, the world's Redeemer,
First revealed His sacred face Evermore and evermore.

This is He whom seers in old time Chanted of with one accord,
Whom the voices of the prophets Promised in their faithful word.
Now He shines, the long-expected;
Let creation praise its Lord Evermore and evermore.

O ye heights of heav'n, adore Him; Angel hosts, His praises sing.
Pow'rs, dominions, bow before Him And extol our God and King.
Let no tongue on earth be silent,
Ev'ry voice in concert ring Evermore and evermore.

Christ, to Thee, with God the Father, And, O Holy Ghost, to Thee
Hymn and chant and high thanksgiving And unending praises be,
Honor, glory, and dominion,
And eternal victory Evermore and evermore. Amen.
