

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S PEN...

The last two weeks have been exciting to say the least. It was great to be at several tournaments and watch our teams compete. It is also exciting to see the girls practice as they prepare to begin their season very soon. For me, as principal, it was even more exciting to see the parents, students and supporters of our program rally around our school, showing their support through cheering at the games, as well through volunteer efforts and activities. As one watched the games, the joy and excitement over every basket made filled the crowd with anticipation.

As I am reminiscing about this weekend with some of the parents, I began to wonder if we ever demonstrate this type of enthusiasm in our Christian walk. So often we Christians walk around looking as if someone just stomped on our toes rather than someone who is a champion. Our sour faces, somber talk, and even our outward gestures fail to demonstrate the joy that should be inside of us. We act as though we have lost all.

St. Paul addresses our life as Christians when he writes, "No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us." (Romans 8:37) We not only have a simple victory, but we have been given the ultimate and final win. Through the blood of Jesus Christ poured out on the cross and His resurrection from the dead, eternal salvation is a sure and certain hope for all who believe. No matter what the devil throws our way, we can stand with St. Paul and say, "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." (v. 38)

So lift your head! Celebrate! The victory is ours! Nothing can take that away!
